

Iowa Barnstormers coach and Director of Football Operations John Gregory announced today that the team of the Arena Football League reached an agreement with Michael Dansby star offensive lineman.

Dansby (6-4, 312) returns to the Barnstormers for a fourth season, his fifth overall to play arena football. The first State Jackson began his career in the Arena Football Arkansas Twisters (AF2) in 2007, where he played for John Gregory. The next season continued Gregory

Dansby in Iowa and had an immediate impact.

He started 48 consecutive games in the regular season in Iowa and has never lost a game.

Dansby is three times winner of the Barnstormers Lineman of the Year "(2008-2010), elected annually by the Iowa players and coaches.

"We are delighted to have Michael back for another season," said Gregory. "He was a leader on and off the field and is an excellent example for our young players."

Dansby served as team leader for the Barnstormers in 2010.

With the addition of Dansby, the Barnstormers have 28 players under contract for the 2011 season. Expect more announcements of coach Gregorio and the Barnstormers in the coming days. Do not forget that 2011 Iowa Barnstormers tickets remain on sale for only $ 117.00 per seat!

The opening match is scheduled for Friday, 25 when the AFL champion Spokane Shock came to town in March.
