

Sharks announce the Baber Scorpio Jacksonville defense has been on other exemptions in the league after signing with the Calgary Stampeders of the Canadian Football League.

Baber (6'0, 196, Sam Houston) signed with the Sharks, after spending time with the Miami Dolphins and Green Bay Packers. Baber origin attended the Dolphins minicamp in May 2008 on a trial basis and signed a May 5 was cut on July 30 in favor of cornerback Chris Roberson.

Baber was taken by the Green Bay Packers 7 August 2008 to take the seat vacated by Brett Favre. Baber appeared in three preseason games and recorded three tackles. He was waived during final cuts. Baber re-sign for the practice squad of the Dolphins.

Winner of three letters, Baber has played three seasons (2003-2004, 2006) of Sam Houston State. In his senior year, was an honorable mention All Southland Conference after recording 46 tackles, one interception and eight pass breakups. He finished his college career with 67 (37 solo) career tackles, three tackles for loss.

Baber was a preparation-16-2A All District and team Most Valuable Player "of Italy, Texas High School. Played two quarterback and cornerback in high school and letters from basketball and athletics.